Robert was a tremendous friend and was always there for everyone!

I was blessed to know him, we played baseball and football together as well as worked at Freightliner together! My life would not have been the same without such a great friend! He would laugh off how pivotal he was in so many folks lives but now he is in Heaven with other family and friends rest well dear friend & brother!

*So sorry to learn of Robert's death. We graduated from West Rowan together. We later cheered for Brandon and my nephew, Daniel Robinson, when they plated ball together.
