“ Robert Holcomb was our neighbor for nearly as long as I can remember. The Holcombs lived at one end of Central Avenue and we lived the other. You could not ask for a better neighbor and a great friend to our family. As a teenager I rode home from school with Robert, Linda and others from our neighborhood. Robert would often have the radio on the Detroit Tigers ballgame and I knew as much as I like to talk that you didn't talk when the ballgame was on. I often went into their home when we got there and often ate with them not realizing that I might be imposing. Mary was a good cook and was very gracious to me.

After I left home and after my dad died my mother could always call Robert if she needed something and he was always glad to help, but that was the kind of man he was. With the loss of Robert I feel like a part of my childhood is gone.

I don't know any of the family now but I just wanted them to know that to me he was a very special man.
