“ *Our hearts are broken but we rejoice knowing where Bill is & knowing he is free from pain walking on two strong legs
No one has ever inspired as many people simply by the every day example he lived
Our lives were truly blessed knowing & loving Bill - go rest high on that mountain along with Mike Sherrill your buddy where you can share fishing & hunting tales from all the years you had on earth
Thank you for being part of our lives & showing us what determination & love can do
RIP Bill we will treasure your friendship forever*

Bill never complained & was always kind, ready to help a friend, neighbor or stranger. Loved him & will miss him, but rejoice because we can just imagine him walking with his own legs through fields of gold with Gus & Squatty holding a fishing rod & gun going to do what they loved best. Go rest high on those mountains-your work on earth is done faithful servant & thank you for your selfless service.
