

Robert Edward Terry

December 9, 1928 - April 22, 2025

Robert Edward Terry-known lovingly as "Bunk," "Dadaddy," or "Grandaddy," titles that reflect the roles he held closest-passed peacefully at the age of 96 on April 22, 2025.

Born on December 9, 1928, Bunk dedicated his life to creating an atmosphere built on his selflessness, stability, and strength for those he loved. In 1956, following his service in the US Navy, Bunk met Ann Faulkenberry, and married the love of his life. Together they had three children, to whom Bunk passed on his resilience and wit. After settling in Charlotte, North Carolina, Bunk established a reputation as a man of faith and family. Bunk started a career at City Chevrolet in Uptown Charlotte in 1960 that led to a 40-year career. Throughout their marriage, Ann and Bunk were able to travel the world, while remaining devoted and founding members of Trinity Baptist Church in Mooresville.

Bunk was a Master Mason member of the East Gate Lodge since 1955, as well as a member of the Omar Shrine Temple.

In his later years, Bunk and Ann moved to Lake Norman to enjoy the gorgeous views, and the company of those he treasured. He will be remembered for his incredible sense of humor, never failing to turn any situation into one of satirical beauty, and his unfailing dedication to those who he loved and to those who loved him.

Bunk Terry is survived by his loving wife, Ann Terry, his three children Robert "Robbie" Terry (Kellie), Jeffrey "Todd" Terry (Angela), and Luanne Terry Luke (Tony), his five grandchildren, Robert "Tripp" Terry III (Kathleen), Jeffrey Terry Jr, Taylor Terry, Michael Luke (Jessica), and Hannah Luke, and his three great grandchildren, Libba, Robert "Bert," and Max.

“ It seems like yesterday and we were out at the Terry lake place. The Hendrick boys were there with the speedboats. Your dad and Mine having a cocktail, smiling and smoking cigars. Our mother’s hard at work, preparing something for us to eat I’m sure. Luanne was just a little thing. Man, how time flies. I was so glad we got to see y’all at the beach and play golf a couple years ago. I know our parents really enjoyed seeing one another after so many years. Let’s stay in touch and make more memories like your family and mine has done for years! Hugs for all of you. Love you.
