“ Rob, I remember the first time we meet. I remember your beautiful smile that lite up the room. We were introduced and I stuck my hand out to shake yours. You looked at me like I was crazy and you said , come here your family we hug in this family. You gave me one of the biggest hugs . On that day I realized a couple of things. One that I would have a great in law family. Two that I would never have to really worry about Michael being excepted into and loved by Amanda’s family. You set my mind at ease that day. Because if you were excepting Michael’s mom so fast and easy. Michael was already your brother. I will miss your warm heart, beautiful smile, and how you could make us all laugh so easily. Thank you for being the person you were to everyone. You made a difference in people’s lives even if you didn’t mean to ! With much love ,Jeanifer Marion

“ Rob, you'll be so very missed. I've known you for over 25 years now and you were like a big brother to me. You took Amanda and I for our first tattoos, we road tripped to North Carolina together multiple times & you always had us laughing till we cried. Thank you for always looking out for me and really treating me like a little sister. We'll forever honor you and the amazing man, husband, son & brother you always were. You will live forever in our hearts now.

“ Robert will always and I mean always hold a special place in my heart. It has been my privilege to hold almost each of my nieces in nephews in my arms, typically hours after their birth with Robert being the very first in line of four very special people. I don't think I will ever fully heal from such a loss, the only comfort I can find right now is in his two beautiful children, knowing that I will spend the rest of my life on this earth loving them, supporting them, watching them thrive and when they ask, telling them about the crazy antics of their father growing up. Robert told me recently that he looked at me as if I were his brother, he never told me that before, what an honor. I love you Robert and will miss you dearly, the void in my life you are leaving behind at this time to great to comprehend, I can only hope you found your peace my nephew.

Love Eternily, Uncle Tony

“ My son how can you put into words the pride and joy ou brought into my life. I want you to know how lucky I am to have been yourDad. Pride is the best word I can say sums up how I always felt of you you made me the dad I am today. What an amazing man father and husband you are. I will help raise your children loving and ALWAYS remind both lil Rob and Emily what a compassionate selfless stand up man your Dad was. My heart breaks at the thought that I won't be hav an ice coffee and a cigarette just talking about anything. The bond between a father and son is unexplainable but I cherish every second we shared together. I will try to do the best I can to always make you proud of me no matter how hard it will be. Until we see each other again just know you are my pride and joy always. Love you more than the world
