“ I just heard about Ron from our niece in Macomb. I went all the way through school with him. His pitching was the reason we won so many Little League and junior-high baseball championships. My wife reminded me that he was one of the nicest guys all the way through school, and I agree. We're thankful to know he is with the Lord Gerald and Susie Hanning

“ Truely regret the passing of Ron. I had him as a student at Macomb High and we enjoyed numerous golf "matches" Ron was too good for me, but nevertheless enjoyed the competition and the companionship.It was my priviledge to know and associate with Ron. My sincere condolences to the family

“ Kelly, I am very sorry to hear of your Dad's passing. Reading that he loved his Savior, take comfort in knowing he is in the presence of GOD and is Praising JESUS! Romans 8:18 tells us I consider that our present sufferings are not worth comparing with the glory that will be revealed in us. Lean on Christ, for HIS way is perfect. You are in my prayers.

“ I remember waking up early at the Beck family home in Marlboro, Massachusetts. It was around 5a.m., no one else was up. Uncle Ron heard me. He turned cartoons on the TV for me and got me a donut. He had a strong voice and a commanding presence. He was a devout and dedicated Christian. And 100 % family man. Our family vacations produced many spectacular memories, from the Grand Canyon to Washington D.C. I caught a catfish with him on the Lake of the Ozarks. I took the subway with him to Fenway Park. He took me to his church. Bible in his hand, filled with markers and notes. He was a great man. A role model. We need more solid men like him. A great husband to Aunt Nancy, his beloved wife for 50 years. A great father to my cousins Larry Lee and Kelly Jo. A lifelong friend to his brothers-in-law, my dad and my Uncle Jim. I was in Michigan when I heard the sad news. On Sunday, I attended service at same church where I got married. Uncle Ron was there for the wedding, like he was for my confirmation and many other moments. I was blessed to have him in my life. My condolences to Nancy, Larry, Kelly, and the entire Beck family. We all love you. We will all miss Uncle Ron.
