“ We were so lucky to have bought a house right next door to Ronnie and Becky, from the first day we met them they were the most wonderful neighbors anyone could wish for. Ronnie was so good to us with his wisdom in the garden, to home repairs, woodworking and his bottomless generosity, I will miss him forever. Ronnie loved to watch things grow, and his thumb was bright green, up before the sun we would see him tending his precious plants, i used to joke to him that he didn't have a garden, he had crops! I'll never forget his sunny disposition and wry humor. So sad to lose you Ronnie.

“ Becky, I am so saddened to learn of Ronnie's passing. I was coming onto the Cook website to leave a message for Neil Linker when I saw Ronnie's picture first. You two had a wonderful, story-book marriage right from high school, and I know many classmates who loved you both so much. I know you can take solace in the deep and abiding love you two shared for over half a century. Amazing! You will be in my thoughts and prayers. Much love, Sheila
