“ This is such a total shock. Reality has not sunk in yet. Thoughts and prayers go out to my brother in law and his family. Ron was a good man, always with a ready smile. He was never without a Tar-heels cap on his head. He will be sorely missed.

“ I send my deepest condolences to the family and friends of Mr. Taylor. Although I did not know him personally, I, too, have experienced the loss of a loved one some years ago and know it is a difficult situation to face. I pray that his family and friends can find comfort in God’s Word, the Bible, and continue to rely on Him in prayer. John 5:28, 29 talks about a hope we have of seeing our loved ones again when they are resurrected back to life. What a beautiful and exciting hope that is!

“ Nancy and family, I know things are sad right now but God will help you make it through this time. Just keep His first and he will do the rest. I love all of you and you know you can call and talk like we always have . Be at peace my friend and know that God will never leave you or forsake you. Jesus said, "I will be with you even to the end of the world". You and I believe that with all our hearts, so hold on to those words. Love You, Nora
