“ Mary, Kerrie & Family,
My heart broke when my sister called to tell me of Mr. U's passing. Thank you Mary for reaching out to her at this time. So many of my memories growing up involve your family... Mr. U WAS my only father figure from about the time I was 9 through adulthood. I thought he could do anything – build club houses, replace roofs, work on cars, heat your house with firewood, the list goes on and on. Those might seem insignificant to some, but I was really impressed! In fact, all of those things I listed is how I live now, and I thank Mr. U for imparting his DIY attitude into me. I loved helping get firewood in the old blue(?) truck in Laurelville, each piece hand-picked to fit in your woodstove, and coming back to stack it. Teaching me how to change my own oil in my truck. The Dayton Airshow was always a treat. Many times I should have been yelled at but wasn't... one particular time I broke an upstairs window of yours with a soccer ball, and I don't recall any anger about that, at least directly to me. I always thought I would take a moment and tell him what he meant to me growing up, and I never took the time – I'm so sorry I didn't. I guess I thought there would be time later and I'd make it down for a visit. Please know how much I appreciated us being neighbors and how blessed I was to be given time with Mr. U and your family. I know it's already been said, best neighbor ever and I agree – and one of the best men I've known too.
