

Rosa Caridad Garcia

October 13, 1942 - November 6, 2020

Rosa Garcia (Rosa "Yitsion" Caridad Achang Álvarez) was a caring wife, mother, grandmother, sister, and friend. She left this world on November 6, 2020 surrounded by her family at the age of 78.

Rosa was born to Chang Chou Kai and Maria Álvarez in Pinar del Rio, Cuba on October 13, 1942. It was there she married the love of her life and had two children. After seeking political asylum from Cuba, they moved to the United States to build a new life. It wasn't easy, but they quickly built the amazing family we know and love.

Rosa is survived by her husband of 60 years, Roger Garcia, daughter, Ibis Centeno (husband, Richard), son Roger Garcia (wife, Jeffrica), sisters Maria "Soulan" Caridad Achang Álvarez and Rosa "Sengsion" Achang, brother Armando Fernández Álvarez, 8 grandchildren and 5 great-grandchildren.

Rosa was the matriarch, known most for her caring heart, selflessness, her phenomenal cooking, and her strong-willed nature. She loved making meals for large family gatherings and watching her grandkids grow and play.

An intimate Celebration of Life will be held with close family and friends to celebrate her legacy on September 4, 2021.
