“ Ann was a quite and caring lady. She loved her girls. When they were small, she would dress them in beautiful clothes. Laurie and Beth loved their mother so much. The trials that Ann went thru, she would never complain. Heaven has received a beautiful angel.

“ So very sorry to hear this news. Ann was a special person--and my babysitter when I was a small child. I remember how proud she was to become a nurse. My mother, Opal Wicker, thought the world of her too. May you all find comfort in good memories.
