“ Hated having to say good-bye to Rod, who was not only my uncle, but also neighbor for the last 30 years. So hard not seeing him go up and down the road on his ponies and sled. Believe me, this man is greatly missed on bailey road. He had been there a long time. R.I.P. Uncle Rod, we'll see you again one day, and rest assured your ponies are being well took care of.

“ I send my deepest condolences to the family and friends of Mr. Stafford. Although I did not know him personally, the loss of a loved one is definitely a trying time for all. I pray that his family and friends can find comfort in God’s Word, the Bible, and continue to rely on Him in prayer. At John 5:28, 29 we read: “...all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out...”; and at Revelation 21:4 we read: “And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain by anymore. The former things have passed away.” May the promise of this beautiful resurrection give you all hope for the future and peace of mind now!
