“ Sherry, so sorry, I just learned. I wasn't local in March. Seems like yesterday the alarm would go off and I would hear him going past the house. Everytime I see a Road Scholar book come in the mail I think of you. Miss you walking by now that I'm out in garden. You and your family are the best.

“ Russell and I were best of friends in High School. He was behind me a grade at Lawrence High but that didn't matter. Another of Russell's good friends was Billy Hauston and we had great fun and good times.... Russell was what I would call quite a character full of piss and vinager.... May he rest in peace as he's surely smiling down upon us.

“ Dear Peck Family, I was so saddened to hear of Russ's passing. I am an old friend from Falmouth. We were in the same class from kindergarten through High School. He came to our 50th class reunion and it was a pleasure to reconnect. He actually stopped by my old house where we continued to reminisce about the good old days. He was a wonderful man. My condolences Crissy Creighton
