

Ruth Ervin

July 30, 1938 - August 8, 2019

Ruth Chambers Ervin, 81, of Davidson, passed away on Thursday, August 8, 2019 at Tucker Hospice House in Kannapolis.

She was born on July 30, 1938 in Biltmore, NC, to the late John Lonnie Chambers and Dixie Greenwood Chambers. She spent most of her life as a pianist and organist in the church. Mrs. Ervin worked for Piedmont Bank in Mooresville, which eventually became Wells Fargo. She also worked for Davidson College and Converse College in admissions. Mrs. Ervin was an active member of Kannapolis Church of God. She loved to read and to travel; especially to the Holy Land.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by a granddaughter, Ashley Ervin.

She is survived by her husband, Jerry Franklin Ervin; sons, Shawn Ervin and wife, Becky, Chris Ervin and wife, Cathy; grandson, Brooks Ervin; and step-granddaughters, Halle, Emma, and Lauren Hinkle.

The family will receive friends on Sunday, August 11 from 1:00-3:00 PM and the service will be following at 3:00 PM at Kannapolis Church of God with Rev. Greg Sloop, Rev. Lawrence Owensby, and Rev. Don Whichard officiating. Burial will follow the service at Glenwood Memorial Park in Mooresville.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to Tucker Hospice House, 5003 Hospice Lane, Kannapolis, NC 28081 or Kannapolis Church of God, 2211 W A St, Kannapolis, NC 28081.

Cavin-Cook Funeral Home, Mooresville, is serving the Ervin family. Condolences may be made to the family at www.cavin-cook.com.

“ Shawn: I am very sorry to hear about your mother. Even though I never met her, I know she was a great and Godly woman because I had the privilege to know and work with you for many years. I envision that she was someone who could teach and share a lot of life lessons. Hold on to the many memories as you and your family work through this time of grief knowing that God has prepared a special place for each of us in heaven.
