“ Ruth was a dear friend in the Cypress Landing Community. I can see her now with her walker making the block. She was tough! Ruth and my deceased mother played bridge at the Mack Center, volunteered at LNRH, and enjoyed many visits at the kitchen table. We always sat together at Centre Presbyterian, sometimes talking and laughing more than listening to the pastor. Ruth's presence has been missed since she moved away but will be fondly remembered. I pray for God's comfort and strength during this difficult time. Sincerely,

“ I enjoyed working as a volunteer at the hospital with Miss Ruth, as I called her, for many years. I always enjoyed her wit and sense of humor and loved talking with about the 40's. She was a fantastic lady and will be missed. Sheryl Barney
