“ June, my mother, Minnie Sue Gray, loved going to your beauty salon. She would come home talking about Ruth this, and Ruth that. My mother has welcomed another one of her friends in Heaven. "To live on in the hearts of others, is not to die."

“ I remember as a kid visiting Grandparents & cousins aunt & uncles were the highlight of my childhood & before we came home watermelons were in car to bring home. The "best watermelons ever" grown by the "Best Granddaddy" ever. Aunt Ruth was a worker ,I don't ever remember her sitting down but at my brothers when they came to visit. Last time I was in Mooresville ,just about 3 yrs ago she was busy as a bee at Junes Shoppe. You could not go to NC without finding some of the best food you had ever eaten. It will always be my second home ,even though I don't get to visit much. She ,granny & daddy all seemed so much alike as time went by. So sorry for your loss June & Reid. I wish I could be there,but I'm having surgery coming up very soon.
