“ R.V will be greatly missed. I loved him so much. When Jeremy and I started dating, he was always so welcoming and loving. He treated me like I was part of the family from the very start. He always made me laugh. I loved him dearly. Now he can be with Mama Kat. Will keep all of the family in my prayers. with love,Bonnie

“ R.V., you were always a wonderful, loving 1st cousin to me and a precious nephew to my momma, Audrey Chapman. Although we didn't visit as often as we should have/could have, we talked about you every day and enjoyed sharing remembrances. I know we will continue thinking and talking about you on an even more regular basis. We surely miss both you and Aunt Kat leaving us this year.Love,Cuz and Aunt Aud

“ I send my deepest condolences to the family and friends of Mr. McHargue. While no words may ease your pain, rest assured that the pain we feel won't go on forever. John 5:28, 29 talks about a hope we have of seeing our loved ones again when they're resurrected back to life. Once resurrected, they can enjoy the promise found at Revelation 21:4 which speaks of a world in which death, tears, mourning, and pain have no place, for “the former things have passed away”. “ My prayers and sympathy are with you all who are missing your dear love one! I hope you find comfort in knowing your tears of sadness will be done away with shortly, replaced with tears of joy when you are reunited with him. John 5:28, 29
