DJ

What a special lady who had such a wonderful influence on her grandson. I remember talking to her and loving her beautiful accent. She is the one who told me that Dave came up to her door when he was selling donuts for the school and his opening line was, "You don't want to buy any donuts, do you?" Of course, she gave him "pointers" on how to be a better salesman! Ha ha! She leaves behind a wonderful legacy in you and your family. Our deepest sympathies, Joe.
