“ I am sitting down reading a book with my beautiful bookmark of you. I'm sorry it took this long. I am missing you more.. I know you are around. I am always looking, I don't know but have tried the best way to reach you but I am remembering I have not tried here. I just have so many things to talk to you about.. oh, just to hear your voice. Just a million more memories. I wish every time I pull up to the house and I see your car that I would walk inside to find you. Please grace your mom, Bobby, Nick and myself with your presence. There is a hole in this family that will never be filled without you. Love you always.. you will never be forgotten.

“ Dear Susan, Bobby and family, I am so heartbroken for you about the loss of your amazing daughter. It's obvious from everyone's postings and guest book entries that she was an incredible young woman in so many ways, and I am so very sorry. I will be making a donation in your daughter's name and honor to the Epilepsy Foundation of NC. My 21-year-old daughter has Epilepsy too and we must find a cure!May Samantha rest in peace while the wonderful memories of her sustain you through the difficult days ahead. God bless all.

“ Samantha was the daughter I never had. I can still hear her voice calling me, Aunt Debbie, Aunt Debbie. We enjoyed many lunches, manicures, shopping and just getting together to talk. She always had me crocheting something. She even bought a big pattern book and mark every project she wanted me to make for her son Carter, boy did he have a lot of booties. There are so many good memories of the times we spent together and She will forever be in my heart. I love you Sam! Aunt Debbie
