“ Don and I have known Sam and Barbara for 40+ years, first at Sharon Baptist in Charlotte, then at Peninsula Baptist and Trinity Baptist in Mooresville. Sam and Barbara demonstrated what a loving Christian couple is to be. It was always a pleasure to be with them. We remember with fondness Sam and Don playing on Sharon Baptist's softball team. We loved Sam's laugh, his honesty and his Godly example of a husband, father, and grandfather. He will be missed so much. He was a Godly man and we look forward to reuniting one day. Rest In Peace thy good and faithful servant.

“ I loved Sam Ivill so much. - he was the best boss I ever had! (Peninsula Baptist Church)! He loved his golf but he loved Jesus more! What an honor to have known him and his precious wife, Barbara.

“ Sam loved his Lord and honored Him in all that he did. He got up early every morning to spend time with Him and read his Bible. This was true no matter where he was or what was going on. We traveled a lot with Barbara and Sam over the years and Sam never failed in his commitment to the Lord. Those trips were always fun filled and memorable. Jim and I will always cherish those times. Wonderful friends for the last 45 + years. We'll always love them both. Jim and Judy Hale
