“ My beloved sister Sandy was my big sister for 85 years. I am blessed to have known her the longest of anyone and that makes my heart grateful. From piano lessons to dancing school to being in the same sorority, we were together. Mama dressed us alike but Mrs. Cobb our ironing lady always knew which dress was mine...the hem was out or the sash was torn off. I wish I had a nickel for every time Sandy and I did the family dishes together listening on the radio to the Hit Parade and knowing the words to all the songs of the day. Sandy rest in peace and please give hugs from me to Daddy, Mama, Buzzie and Cheryl. My sweet Charlie too and my favorite Uncle Bill and all the others who welcomed you to Paradise. You will live forever in my heart. Thanks for being the best big sister ever!
