“ I was saddened to read about Sandra's passing in the paper yesterday. I remember how kind she was to me and my family when we moved to Mooresville in 2001 from New England. I am sorry she left her earthly life so soon, but I know she is now living with our Father. May the memories of her fill your hearts and give you comfort at this time, Cameron and Scott. The world was a better place with her in it.

Much love,

“ Sandy was a beautiful thoughtful kind person and always there on the phone to uplift me in times of struggles over the years ... I met her in 1977 at CMC before moving on (she even allowed this Novice singer to sing at her wedding) but I always kept up with her and I know how hard she was fighting so Rest in our LORD my sister in CHRIST I will miss you terribly but I will see you again that is the only comfort I can find at this moment ... I pray for all her family her friends and all the many life's she touched may you all be comforted in being blessed knowing this beautiful lady ! Deborah (debbie) Sewell 🙏

“Sandy was a loving supportive wife, a skilled medical professional, a loving mother, and a mentor to numerous scouts. She was always a happy person with a positive spirit.

I never knew her to say a harsh word about anyone else.

If you asked Sandy for a favor, the first sentence out of her mouth was NEVER an excuse.

Our family celebrates her life as a victory, although at this moment in time, we feel a tremendous loss.

“We met Sandy just a couple of times through our connection with her sister-in-law, Heidi Caveny. Sandy was so easy to talk with and had such a gentle and kind way about her that made us instantly at ease around her. We were actually just with her and Cam on July 4 at a gathering at North Myrtle Beach with the Caveny family and other friends. Such a huge loss to the immediate and extended family and friends. Our thoughts and prayers are with you all. Stella & Jerry Magliolo

Sandy was the kindest and sweetest person I have had the pleasure of knowing. We became friends when our families moved to Mooresville and we became neighbors. Our sons our best friends to this day. Sandy loved her husband dearly and was proud to be his wife. She adored Scott with every beat of her heart and was so proud of the man he had become. You were a true blessing to us all and will be sorely missed. May you rest on the arms of our Lord whom you loved and praised with every word you spoke.
