“ I had not seen Sara since high school. I reconnected with her via facebook. I had no idea that she had been sick. I will always remember her for her giggle. She always seemed to have a smile on her face when we were young. My prayers go out to her family. I know you will miss her.

“ Rest in peace Sara Lee. I will always be grateful to you for making me feel so welcome when I started my job in the library. Whenever you would go to break, you made sure to stop by my office to ask me to join you. And, we had many fond memories of our youth spent in Ohio that we liked to share. I will miss your warm smile and will always admire the love and concern you shared with each of your colleagues in the library.

“ Jason, so sorry to hear about your Mum, Please know that our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family at this very difficult time. Just like the seasons that come and go when the flowers of spring lay buried in snow, God sends to the heart in it's winter of sadness a springtime awakening of new hope and gladness. May God bless and be with your family in this winter of sadness and bring you peace for the springtime.

“ I send my deepest condolences to the family and friends of Mrs. Enders. While no words may ease your pain, rest assured that the pain we feel won't go on forever. John 5:28, 29 talks about a hope we have of seeing our loved ones again when they're resurrected back to life. Once resurrected, they can enjoy the promise found at Revelation 21:4 which speaks of a world in which death, tears, mourning, and pain have no place, for "the former things have passed away". Please visit our website at jw.org to learn about this beautiful hope and more.
