“ When you hear the unexpected and sudden passing of a loved one, it's heart crushing. Tommy, Dottie, I am so sorry about hearing this just now today, April 4, Sara was an amazing wife, mother and friend to all who knew her. I never saw her that she didn't have a smile on her face or offering a plate of food to the unexpected guest at her home. Her grand babies were her pride and joy and i must say, Dottie had the most amazing mom in the world and Tommy couldn't have been blessed with a better wife.

“ We were so very sorry to hear of Sarah's passing. I will always remember her as "punkin". Her sweet self-her beautiful voice and musical talent will be missed but will add to the heavenly choir. She's up there making music with her mom, dad and Farmer. Those years so long ago hearing them all sing and play was a true blessing. Her pain is gone and no sorrow remains only her happy voice singing God's praises. We are all better for knowing her. Rest in Peace sweet girl.

“ God took another flower for his bouquet to sing with his angels. No more sorrow hurt or pain can touch you again. You will be missed but nobody would wish you back here as you are in sun a better place - Heaven - with your mom and dad and everyone but most of all you can say "Take me to Jesus" as the song goes. We love you. Doris, carol, Betty, and our mom Pearl cunnupp.
