“ *My deepest condolences to Mr. Slagh's family and friends; while no words may ease your pain, rest assured that the pain we feel won't go on forever. John 5:28, 29 talks about a hope we have of seeing our loved ones again when they're resurrected back to life. Once resurrected, they can enjoy the promise found at Revelation 21:4 which speaks of a world in which death, tears, mourning, and pain don't exist, for "the former things have passed away". “ I met Scotty, which is how I referred to him, at his store in Huntersville. He always remembered me by my first name and never turned away anything I brought to him to sell. He always took the time to ask about how I was and lifted my spirits with his smile and great attitude. I will have a hard time going in to the Mooresville store without missing him. I have prayed for the strength and comfort of his family and wanted them to know that Scotty will be greatly missed.
