“ I send my deepest condolences to the family and friends of Mr. Arnold. Although I don't know the family personally, I'd like to offer some consolation from God's Word, the Bible. John 5:28, 29 talks about the hope of seeing our loved ones again when they are resurrected back to life. Once resurrected, they can enjoy the promise found at Revelation 21:4: "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain by anymore. The former things have passed away." May this beautiful promise bring hope for the future and peace of mind now!

“ Shane will be greatly missed He was a great coach who was respectful of his team and assistants as well as of parents, grandparents, umpires and other coaches and teams. He was soft spoken and easy to talk to, would answer questions he knew and find out the answers to what he didn't know. My prayers are with Misty and Brittany, and I know that God will help you through this tragedy. Love to you both.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Death is so hard to deal with but our loving Heavenly Father, who the bible describes as the God of comfort (2Cor. 1:3,4) promises that we will some day see our loved ones again. He promises a resurrection right here on earth, John 5:28,29 and Rev. 21:3,4. These are just two scriptures that promises this.
