Sharon will be missed greatly by her friends and family who will always remember her loving and generous spirit.

Sharon is survived by her former spouse, John Q. Chambers of Conway, South Carolina, her son, Timothy J. Chambers (Shelley) of Mooresville and by her brother, James T. Rocha (Carol) of Santa Fe, New Mexico, as well as extended family living in California and Texas.

“ So sorry to hear of Sharon's passing. My grandmother Frances was very close friends with Sharon and her family when they lived in Virginia. Frances worked at their restaurant, Westmoreland's in Natural Bridge (now Pink Cadillac Diner), for many years. Many fond memories of Sharon and her family.

“ I've been Tim's friend for more than 20 years, and I can honestly say that I've never met a more loving and devoted mother (and son). Mrs. Chambers was always incredibly warm and friendly - it's sounds cliché, but I don't believe she ever met a stranger.

Much love Tim and Shelley...
