SHARON "LEA" DWYER - June 12, 1949 - October 8, 2023

"The all-encompassing epitome of the most beautiful, classy, elegant mother, grandmother, sister, friend, gardening extraordinaire and Paris fanatic."

Sharon "Lea" was given the gift of life on June 12, 1949, in Charlotte, North Carolina to Gloria Mattox Potter and Harris Emerson Potter.

Sharon "Lea" was preceded in death by her mother and father.

Lea leaves behind her daughters Lori West (Lane), Dodie George (John) to honor her legacy for many years to come. Her grandchildren, James George (Emily) and April George, will forever remember her for the love she bestowed upon them at every opportunity, the hilarious stories she came up with of her changing the light bulbs in the Eiffel Tower and riding her elephant to work in Africa when she opened up the first McDonald's there. Her sense of adventure and imagination always brought much laughter to our home. Her grandchildren brought so much joy to her. She loved hearing all the stories of their day-to-day lives. Sharon leaves behind her sister, Dianne "Potter" Crutchfield, with whom she shared many wonderful beach trips with and whom she spoke with daily. Dianne was a life-line to Sharon, a best friend and a wonderful sister. Sharon leaves behind her brother, Gary Potter (Elaine), and a host of nieces and nephews. Sharon shared a very special bond with her brother throughout her life.

She started her career at Duke Power for many years working with her dear friend Brenda Sistare. She later started her own business, "The Duchess Nail Boutique," in Mooresville, NC.

She lived a full, exciting, humorous, fun-loving, traveling life. Lea loved to work outside in her garden and always had the prettiest variety of flowers. She enjoyed listening to music and she loved to dance. Beach music and "shagging" were her favorites. She also loved Paris and had dreams of going to Paris someday. If you ever went inside her home, you would see how much she loved it. Eiffel Towers everywhere!

She was taken away from us much too early, however on just the exact day God had planned for her. She will always be missed, but her memories will remain forever in our hearts.

A Celebration of Life for Sharon Lea Dwyer will be held at 2:00 on Saturday, October 21st in the chapel of Cavin-Cook Funeral Home in Mooresville. Visitation will follow the service.

“ I remember Sharon as a delightful outgoing sister of Dianne. She would light up the room. She was kind and really loved her sister. I understood that and appreciated that as I love my sisters dearly too. She told me about her health issues and I have admired her openness and her courage.

I pray that all will keep your cherished memories of her close. You might want to look out at the night sky. You may see a star winking at you.

My deepest condolences to all of the family. G-d must have needed another Angel and picked her.

Lea has been my friend for over 45 years. I have never met a more loving, caring, and classy person. She helped so many people and trusted everyone. She was a child of God and now in his arms. She loved the Lord Jesus and lived for him. July 4, 2022 when she was anointed she confessed her love and believed in the Holy Sprit. She expressed her Belief in him. I can hear her saying now, I Believe. May you rest in his arms we will see you again. Love you Lea Dwyer.
