“ My Dearest and Darling wife, we shared most of our lives together gradually changing from two separate people into a combined heart and soul with joyous results, and daily I prayed that we would be able to care for one another well into our late eighty's watching and enjoying our family grow. Never ever expected that you would pass away so suddenly that our family nor I would never get to tell you how much we loved and admired you nor were we able to wish you a final farewell as the angels took you to your resting place in heaven. On behalf of our entire family know that You are loved, you are missed, and your beautiful legacy will live on forever. To ensure that legacy we are closing out this chapter of our love for you on earth, by creating a special memorial book as our expression of our deep love and celebration of your life. This provides our entire family and future generations a way to remember you for the remainder of eternity. My love forever, till we meet again - Bob.

“ To my loving and amazing mother. You were such a blessing in my life. I look back at all the memories and smile. You made them so wonderful. Your soul was loving and kind. My friends growing up considered you a second mom, always welcoming them in to the family. I miss you. I know you are with Cathy celebrating and laughing, which makes me happy. Know that I think about you everyday and use your caring and kindness as a compass in my life. You will be forever with me. Love, Johnny a.k.a the Caboose.

“ Since you have been gone I have been going through all of your photos adding them to a memory book. This has shown me what a wonder life you have lived and how deeply you are missed. There are no words that can explain the emotions that I felt reliving these memories as my heart was filled with joy being able to be a part of them. They have become the unspoken guidance on how I wish to live the rest of my life. I will cherish every memory you have given me and you will never be forgotten. Love Paul.

Thank you for being one of the the most selfless and thoughtful souls in my life. Your influence and love will be remembered everyday. With Love, Brian

“ To my wonderful mother, whom I miss so much. Not a day goes by that I don't think about how much I miss you while reflecting on all the wonderful memories I have of you. I feel so blessed to have had such a wonderful woman as my mother. Your dedication to our family was always unwavering. I am the woman and I am today largely in part because of you. You taught us how to love unconditionally at an early age and you taught us about the real value of family and reminded us not to take the little things in life for granted. I will celebrate you daily and will miss you always. Love Jenny.

“ Sharon, my darling wife it is October week of my 80th birthday. Trust as you look down upon earth you will see that the last few days have finally brought me some happy thoughts and feelings. John flew in from out of state on Wednesday to be with me on my birthday and is staying for the remainder of the week. Thursday we all went to a football game to watch Cole play in high school home game. Cole has grown up now in high school, gotten to be big boy and we know you and Cathy are watching over him. Paul/Cari/Heather came Friday (with the great grandkids) and decorated the house for a very festive birthday party complete with balloons with sparkles. Austin and Aleeza joined in, and Jennifer came with a friend, Sam and Rosie. Brian spruced up the house outside and then prepared an excellent birthday dinner for all. Even though it was a party You were in our thoughts all evening. Rest in peace, till we meet again. My Love forever - Bob “ Grandma, I miss and love you very much. The memories of you and us together, I will cherish forever. One of my favorite memories is when you took me to see monster trucks as a young boy. You and grandpa always made sure to call me and send me a birthday card on my birthday to wish me a happy birthday. You taught me many things in life and one of those was to tie my shoes and You were the first person to teach me that. I think it is special that I can tie my shoes everyday and think of you and the memory of us sitting together tying my shoes. I think of you often. You will always hold a special place in my heart grandma. Thank you for all of the sweet memories and kind things you did for me. I love you.

Each and every one of us will miss you, but your spirit and strength, lives on in all of those who had the privilege to be apart of your life. It was an honor to know your love and wisdom, and to see the beauty of your soul. You may have passed on, but the memories created will always be cherished, and held tight. “ Grandma, although I never got to see you as much as I could ever wish, every memory we ever shared was truly a pure one. As much of a loving Grandma you were, I also felt like you took care of me like a second mother. From feeding me and taking Cole, Sofia, and me out to several places like Steak and Shake, bowling, and watching countless movies. I feel so grateful to have been one of your grandchildren and I couldn't have asked for better Grandparents myself. Every day with you was an unforgettable adventure where I learned countless things and most importantly how to truly have fun. I can't thank you enough for all the wonderful gifts you have given me and all the toys you spoiled me with as a child. As much as I enjoyed all those things there are 3 gifts from you I'll never forget. From a young age, I have always been worried about playing instruments and could never carry them out when I tried but you never let me give up. You would always blow me away from a young age when you would play all these pretty piano pieces and it truly lit a path from my adventure into music on my own. From some of our last memories you never gave up supporting me and would always be there to watch me and cheer on the most wonderful gift you have given me. Thanks to you, I have learned all sorts of long and beautiful songs and have carried out playing in your memory along with my school recital whose song was solely devoted to you as you were the one who kept me company the whole way learning it. One day I hope to learn all your favorite songs as you were my favorite supporter. Another gift is the wonderful and beautiful family you raised alongside Grandpa and I can see your guys' same love and how it twinkles in all their eyes. And last but definitely not least, thank you for being not only the best Grandma but a best friend who let me shine brighter than I could've ever imagined myself doing and I hope to shine as bright as you do one day. Knowing you is a wonderful gift and I hope you are smiling with laughter up above. You will never be forgotten. With all my love - Luke

You gave me many gifts, the gift of an amazing family, the gift of many memories, and the gift of being your granddaughter. I appreciate how much you loved me, much more than I could ever know. You truly gave me the fondest memories, and you brought Luke, Cole, and I on some of the best after school adventures. All the small things you did for me like teaching me how to tie my shoes, how to shuffle cards, showing me what it means to be kind, is what I find myself going back to. “ I have so many wonderful memories of Aunt Sharon . When I was about 8 I visited Michigan a couple summers in a row. I was shared by Grandma and Grandpa and Aunt Sharon and Uncle Bob. If you think about it she was in her 20's.....no wonder I thought she was such a fun Aunt. She always did girly stuff like my hair and she was always doing some type of arts and crafts. In later years she inspired me by leaving some inspirational books on my front porch on her way home from one of her Florida visits. I was in a troubled time and her taking the time to get these books to me meant so much. Not knowing myself at the time...but that was the beginning of healing for me. Her kindness and love will be missed. I know she's with Cathy, Grandma and Grandpa, my Dad and many others in heaven.

Much love to you Aunt Sharon ❤️

*Remember Me
Don't remember me with sadness,
Don't remember me with tears,
Remember all the laughter,
We've shared through the years.
Now I am contented
That my life - it was worthwhile,
Knowing that I Passed along the way
I made somebody smile.
When you are walking down the street
And you've got me on your mind,
I'm walking in your footsteps
Only half a step behind.
So please don't be unhappy
just because I'm out of sight,
Remember that I'm with you
Each morning, noon, and night.
Sharon
Your spirit will touch our hearts forever, My Love for you till end of time. Bob*

A Mystery ...Unfold it / A Journey ...Walk it / Painful...Endure it

Beautiful...See it / A Joke... Laugh at it / A Song...Sing it

A Flower...Smell it / Wonderful... Enjoy it / A Candle...Light it

Precious...Don't' waste it / A Gift...Open it / Love...Give it

Unlimited...Go for it / Light...Shine in it

“ Mom you are such a beautiful woman both inside and out. You have always been truly devoted to our family over the years. My mother has sent me little letters and poems she has written over the years, all which talked about how thankful she was for her family and the little things in life. I feel so blessed to have such an amazing woman in my life, who guided me through both childhood and adulthood, I will miss her for the rest of my life. I'm going to share something that she wrote to me.

A mother comes equipped with an internal anxiety meter. It is right in the middle of her heart and has each of her children's names engraved on it. During the early years of their lives, we nurture and prepare these little birds in the nest, but then it becomes time to let them try their wings in all kinds of situation's. As we watch these solo flights, we are proud, but a little scared, hopeful, but a little apprehensive. But the same God, who gave us our children -these precious gifts of love -is worthy and able to take care of them. He is worthy of our complete trust. Trust-a conscious act of placing each child in his hands. With that act comes a beautiful awareness that through each experience, he is at work in their lives. He is molding them into what he would have them become. Turning, even what we perceive as hurtful into his good. Turning their failures and ours into footsteps – foot steps towards himself.

To my darling and beautiful wife, I miss you with all my heart and soul but understand you are now in god's hands and at peace. Today I will celebrate our 58-wedding anniversary with you in my heart and all the beautiful memories we created together. My love forever, till we meet again in God's Garden.
