

Sharon Ellinwood Law

August 12, 1947 - November 29, 2022

Sharon Ellinwood Law was born on August 12, 1947, and she entered the presence of her Lord on November 29, 2022. Sharon was born and reared in St. Petersburg, Florida and was the second of five children and oldest daughter of Eugene Carroll Ellinwood and Helen Bernice Claville.

Sharon came to saving faith in Jesus Christ at an early age. She poured her life into her faith in God, family, and friendships always lending a helping hand to everyone she met. Her selfless, caring sensitivity to the needs and feelings of other people typified her life as she extended gentleness, generosity, hospitality, aid, encouragement, a positive spirit, and love above all else.

On December 5, 1964, Sharon and James B. Law, Sr. (Jim) were married. Over their nearly 58 years of marriage, they had four children, thirteen grandchildren, and five great-grandchildren with two more on the way. Their family has grown and flourished over the years and includes a pastor, a missionary, a nurse, an engineer, a construction worker, an electrician, a photographer/HR director, and successful entrepreneurs in a family-owned business. In October 2002, Jim and Sharon moved to North Carolina and partnered with their son Greg and his wife Katy to begin Sweet Dreams Mattress, Inc. For the next twenty years, they would be a part of this growing and successful business built on prayer, love for Christ, and love for the community.

Sharon Law is preceded in death by both her parents and her sister, Renee Ellinwood. She is survived by her husband, James B. Law, Sr.; her son, James B. Law, Jr. and his wife Gwynne; her son, Bryan D. Law and his wife Lisa; her daughter, Kathryn A. Gaus; her son, Gregory A. Law and his wife Katy; her grandchildren, who affectionately called her "Nana", Lydia Miller, Naomi McGalliard, Daniel Law, Miriam Rogge, Nathan Law, Esther Law, Samuel Law, Macy Law, Matthew Gaus, Hannah Gaus, Kayla Gaus, Jonathan Law, and Casey Law; and her great-grandchildren, Raya Miller, Micah Miller, Elia Miller, Theodore "Teddy" McGalliard, and Esme Law. Sharon is also survived by her brother, Stanley Ellinwood and his wife Barbara "Babs"; her sister, Denise McPherson and husband Alex; and her sister, Gaye Robin Ellinwood, along with nieces and nephews.

The family would like to thank the exemplary staff at Novant Health Presbyterian Medical Center, and they wish to express a special word of appreciation to Dr. Patricia Kropf for her attentive and compassionate medical care.

A time of visitation will be held Sunday, December 4th from 1:00 p.m. - 2:30 p.m. at Troutman Baptist Church in Troutman, NC. The funeral service will begin at 2:30 p.m. and will be led by her son, Dr. James B. Law, Jr. and Pastor John Stevenson.

The funeral service will be offered through Livestream on the Troutman Baptist Church YouTube channel.

“ On behalf of Returning Smiles, we would like to honor Mrs. Sharon. You are truly God’s gift to our family and we are blessed to have witnessed an amazing jewel. You have left an inescapable impact on our lives and there are no words for the legacy that you’ve left on your family, friends, and loved ones. Your shining personality will live on in our hearts as we try to get through this difficult time. You will be missed deeply.

Thank you for your heart, thank you for taking the time to pour into our family, and thank you for treating us as your very own.

To the family:

We know we can’t make your pain go away, but we also want you to know that we are here for you with a shoulder to cry on or an ear to listen with, or anything else you may need. We wish you moments of peace and comfort as you remember someone near and dear to our hearts. May her legacy continue through each of you. May you take the memories of yesterday and make them live from day to day. May God’s peace continue to reign on you. Sending healing prayers and comforting hugs.

Loves always,
The Hurtados & Returning Smiles
