“ Such a sweet, caring, giving and loving person on top of having a perpetual smile. She lit up any room she was in...it shows us just how short life is and that death has no respect of person. She will be greatly missed and she will always be remembered. Randy and family...may you carry the burden of her passing with a heart filled with love and fond memories. We mourn but, we also should celebrate a life well lived because that's the way she'd want it...wanting her family and friends to carry on and use the light she shined to help lead to a better tomorrow. Prayers and good thoughts being sent to Randy, family and all those who knew and cared for this great lady.

“ My heart aches for Randy and the Teske family. Too many years and too many miles have passed since we last spent time together, but memories last forever. Sharon was a loving, supporting wife, mother, grandmother and friend. She made everyone she met feel special because, she was special. I am so sorry for your loss.

The first time I met Sharon I had gone over to their house they were looking at to check in with the owner and Sharon came in the room and announced with much enthusiasm that that was to be her house! “ My heart is hurting right now. Sharon helped me a few times with my Ruby Ribbon business, probably because we really hit it off when we met and we enjoyed spending time together. She had a heart of gold!

“ The very first memory that comes to mind (there are many) is when Bonnie, Sharon, my Aunt Margie, mom and I were meeting in Ocean City Maryland years ago. We planned to meet at an Arby’s and there she was waving this blow up cow on the side of the road! That was the start of a wonderful girls weekend. She will be dearly missed but memories never forgotten. My heart is with all the Teske’s right now.

I so enjoyed working with Sharon at Cross Patches in Collinsville. There was never a dull moment. Since then, it’s been fun challenging each other directly or indirectly through online video games. Susan was a vibrant fun loving lady. Your family has my deepest sympathy—Amy Meyer

Sharon and I met as military spouses in Anchorage, AK in the early 90s and had remained friends ever since.

One of my most endearing memories was when we were at a Senior Center Craft Bazaar having lunch and a couple of Senior ladies were at a table next to us having soup and a very "spirited" conversation! We both just looked at each other and smiled and Sharon said "Look at them Ms. Crowl, that's gonna be us someday!" Many years had passed and whenever we would talk or visit each other, that special moment between us always came up. I KNOW, Ms. Teske, you are holding a seat at your table for me in heaven.
