“ She was an amazing woman. She always treated others like family, especially mine. She was my moms best friend (Kris Werner) and treated us kids as her own. She had such a beautiful soul, ill always cherish and remember all the roads trips to stay at her house from having late night ice creams with Jerry and helping her with any jobs or anything she needed. Rest in peace Shelia, you'll forever be missed and loved <3

She was an especially kind & uplifting to me when my husband when through heart surgery. I give thanks with a grateful heart that I will see her again one day as I have no doubt of her belief in Jesus. Gods bless & comfort her family & friends today & in the days ahead.

“ What an amazing woman and friend. Sheila would never stop, she was a hard working woman and she kept on giving her all at the task she was committed to complete. She was such a loving, caring and kind friend. I will miss her and the time we spent together. May her family find solace in knowing she was so loved. One of my favorite memories is when we went out at the last minute to see the fireworks on July 4th, we wore our pajamas and just laughed at the thought if we were to be seen by our children or someone we knew. Rest well my dear friend, I'm happy you're at peace and in no pain. Love ya 💔💔
