“ Shelley was my bus assistant. We would talk every day on the way home about anything! She was kind hearted, she always listened, we laughed All the time. One of my favorite memories was for Christmas she gave me a McDonald's gift card. She told me one time that a horse was holding a ball in his mouth and spit it out on Lancaster Hwy. i absolutely loved her!

Back in the day we were close neighbors to the Whitakers. I can still see Shelly in her highchair or dragging her blanket around. Saddened to learn of her passing and we extend our most heartfelt condolences to the family. Brought back some wonderful memories of our life on 46th street! May she rest in peace.
