“ Sherry and Jerry were the finest people you would ever meet. I kept my horse at their stable and they looked after me like I was their daughter. Sherry is now finally reunited with Jerry. God sped my friend and I will see you on the other side. Rest in peace.....Melissa Randle Primm

“ We're so sorry to hear of Sherry's passing. She was a true horse whisperer. (I love the picture you posted) Our days at the barn with her we're my favorite memories of our time in the horse world. She was a loving, caring person. Our prayers: you can enjoy the wonderful memories of your Mom and Grandmother.

“ Rick and I met Sherry (and Jerry) Long, as well as their family and friends at their stables in 1996. Upon our 1st meeting, we knew they were special people...they would immediately become our extended family, and we would remain closest of friends over those years. Knowing Sherry is with the Lord, and she and Jerry are united again is comforting. Thinking of family and friends, specifically, Derwin, Allison, Hannah, Jesse and Dwayne (as well as Bill, Lisa and Claire) during this very difficult time.

“ Linda and I only lived in Mooresville a short time but became very close friends with Jerry & Sherry when Derwin and Dwayne were young. We remember their kindness and caring spirit and our friendship has continued long after we moved away. As a Christian, and once their pastor, I am rejoicing that they both are now delighting in the presence of their Lord!
