“ Worked with Stan at NBLIC 40 years ago. He was a great guy. Really fun and very sweet. I'll always remember those days fondly.

“ I'm truly thankful to have been able to work with Stanley. He was kind and thoughtful in teaching me the ethics and basic principles of the claims department at a time when I initially wanted nothing to do with claims. Since his departure in 2006 things were never the same but I remain grounded and certain in a world so full of uncertainty. Thank you sir!

My heartfelt condolences goes to his family and friends in this period of loss..

“ I was so sorry to hear about Stan's passing. He was one of a kind. He mentored me in a position I didn't have a clue about with kindness, patience and guidance. He gave me time and training after he had retired, even though I know it was the last thing he wanted to do. Always made sure he welcomed me to the convention even though he was busy with all those convention duties. A great dry sense of humor - could always make me laugh. Thanks for taking me under your wing when I really needed it - I'll always be grateful. Rest easy Stan - and thank you.
