

Stella Grace Bright

September 7, 2007 - September 9, 2023

Stella Grace Bright, lovingly known as "Stell-Bell", was an extraordinary and vibrant 16-year old. Although she tragically passed away in a car accident on September 9, 2023, her beautiful spirit continues to shine brightly. Born on September 7, 2007, in Annapolis, MD, Stella shared an incredible bond with her identical twin sister, Olivia, throughout their cherished 16 years together.

Stella had the opportunity to experience life in various states, including Maryland, Iowa, Washington, and North Carolina. Currently residing in Mooresville, NC, she attended Lake Norman High School. She was adored by everyone who knew her, as her warm and kind-hearted nature made her a beloved friend among her peers.

Living life to the fullest was Stella's way of embracing every moment. She had a passion and talent for cooking, and in addition, she had a profound love for art and creativity. Drawing and painting were among her favorite pastimes, and she aspired to become an Interior Designer or Architect in the future. Stella also discovered joy in staying active and listening to music, finding comfort and happiness in both. Being outdoors brought her immense joy, whether she was swimming in the pool, going on a bike ride, or enjoying the lake with her best friends. Creating lasting memories through quality time spent with loved ones, playing games, watching movies, and simply being together was incredibly important to Stella.

Stella had an amazing presence that brightened every room she entered. Her infectious smile, sense of humor, and warm heart endeared her to all who had the pleasure of knowing her. Stella had a remarkable ability to connect with others, leaving a lasting impact on every person she encountered. Her soul was truly one of a kind, spreading kindness and grace that touched the hearts of those around her. Stella's memory will forever be treasured, and she leaves behind a profound legacy of love and compassion.

Stella is preceded in death by her grandfather, Ronald E. Bright, who died in 2020. She is survived by her sister Olivia, as well as her loving parents, Chris and Teresa. Also survived by her grandfather, William H. Schur, her grandmother, Linda J. Schur, her grandmother, Aldene Loe, her grandmother, Dorine K. Bright, her grandfather, Alton L. Loe, her aunt, Tammy A. Schur-Hulstrom, her uncle, Kippy D. Giancanteri, her aunt Laura K. Rosner, her uncle Adam B. Rosner

On Sunday, September 17, 2023, at 2pm, Stella's family and friends will gather at Williamson's Chapel UMC Church to celebrate her life. It will be a time to honor her memory and share stories that reflect the remarkable person she was.

As a tribute to Stella's beautiful spirit, memorial donations can be made 'Star Bright Creatives' in lieu of flowers. This act of kindness will help carry forward the essence of her loving nature and make a positive impact in her memory. “ Even though I am family, I don't think I have met Stella and Olivia but just once, due to physical distance. Beautiful girls and over-the-moon proud parents. I bet I would have lots in common with the young lady Stella was becoming. I cannot imagine the heartache her close family is having to endure now. I wish there could be words enough for comfort. May love help you pull together this huge hole in your hearts.

I went offline for a remote vacation the day Stella died. What a shock of news to come back to 3 weeks later.

You are all in my thoughts. Every day left is still a treasure, though with one star less in the infinite sky.

Love!
