“ Oh my Dear Stephanie, you were such a beautiful little girl and oh my you had pure white hair and milky white skin. Aunt Diana thought you looked like a little doll. I can still see you sitting on the couch rocking your self. You always self soothed yourself and as an adult you always worked hard. I know that you are with your family now and it eases my heart to know that you can now rest. Our talks this last year has helped my grieving heart to understand that you were tired. So go rest high my sweet girl and enjoy the peace our Heavenly Father gives. Love you forever, Aunt Diana

“ Stephenie was my Dad and I will forever miss her. Her love. Her smile. Her inspiration....life will never be the same without her. She would want us to remember to always love and always forgive. She taught me love over pride for all of my life and I think if we all just remember to be kind we'd be honoring her memory. She was the kindest most selfless person I have ever known and never stopped loving. Let her memory remind you to always be as caring as you can be. Til we meet again Stefafa. I love you! 🥹

“ Steph ment a lot to a lot of people. That's because she loved and cared about each and every one of them. I take comfort in the fact that she is in heaven looking over us all. God was the light in her life. When ever she was scared like on a roller coaster or something she would scream Jesus over and over. It was so funny. Steph I am missing you so much and that will never go away. Your loving wife, Stacy Cooper

Oh Sweet Stephanie, Being your Aunt was a gift only God could give. I am heart broken we lost you. You had the most caring and giving Soul anyone could have. I cherish the times we talked and you shared your love of the Lord with me. You worked hard and accomplished so much in your life. You will always be in my heart but now you are safe in the arms of Jesus. Love You, Aunt Sandy
