“ Steve, I miss you dearly, it's taken me a while to write this, I didn't want to believe it. It just doesn't feel real. We had such great times together, I loved spending my summers at Grandma, and Grandpa Moores. And seeing you all summer. I never felt like you were my cousin, it felt more like you were my older brother. When I think of you, I only smile. Just too many funny memories. It makes me happy when I think about you and Todd together again. I miss you both so much, but so glad you have each other. Until I see you again, I will keep my memories close to my heart. I love you always,
Teresa

“ Steve was one of my closest nephews.
He was more of a son than a nephew to me.
We had an especially close relationship.
I'll never forget the summers that he spent with me and the memories that we shared.
No matter what was going on in your life he could always make you laugh and feel better.
I will miss, and love him so much!! He had so much talent, singing, theater. I take comfort in knowing he is with his Mom and Dad. Until we meet again. I love you Spanky!!

“ The closest I came to having a little brother. I'm sitting on the porch looking out onto the lake and remembering the talks we had while you were here. It was such a blessing and a comfort to have you here after Billie passed. So many, many memories of you, me, Cheryl, Teresa, Jeff, Todd, April and the whole family I hope you are singing for Jesus now. I love you Steve. I Rest in peace sweetie. ❤️

“ I was in the Fordsters at South Iredell with Steve. Always laughing!! We double dated at my senior prom in 1979...best one ever! Haven't seen him since I graduated but thought about him often because of the happy memories. Sounds like his beautiful personality continued throughout his life. Sending condolences to his family.

“ I met Steve during high school, through mutual friends and loved his personality. He loved life and the people in his life. Steve will be missed, but he is celebrating with loved ones that went home before him.
Rest in peace.

“ I love you, Steve, and though I didn't know you well, I hope someday we can be best friends in heaven.

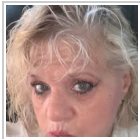

As for now I'll wish you peace and love from planet Earth.

“When you were born, you were crying and everyone around you was smiling. Live your life so that when you die, you're the one smiling and everyone around you is crying,”

“ I've known Steve since I was 13 years old. He was the first boy I ever kissed. He was also my first clinical instructor in nursing school. I got him a job at the American Red Cross where we work together for eight years. Our lives kept drifting away and fate always brought us back together. Steve was one of the best people I have ever had a privilege to know. He would give you the shirt off his back do anything that he needed to do to help you. He's loved and he has missed.

“ I met Steve in his teen years when he and my cousin, Joe Goodman RIP, hung out together. Steve was so kind and respectful. He was also hilarious, he kept me laughing whenever I saw him! Steve, I know you are in heaven making angels laugh until they cry. You and Joe are buddies again with wings to fly. Fly high my old friend. I haven't seen you in years and I have missed you. Will see you again someday. Peace and love in your heart forever. Love you
