“ Lynn,

I just now found this out and I am so sorry. I could tell by the look on your face Saturday when I saw you at the Halloween Festival things were not good but I had no idea. Steve will always hold a special place in my heart. I enjoyed working with him for many years when I was at Pro-Tech and he was at Betco.

“ So sorry to hear of Steve's passing. I know the family will miss him greatly. I was proud to call Steve a friend of mine. Will miss the phone conversations talking about our Miata's and seeing him at the car shows. He always had a great smile and an upbeat attitude even when he sometimes didn't feel good. “ Lynn, this one's for you.

Steve was such a big kid when it came to Christmas!

He'd buy you a really nice Christmas gift at least a month or two in advance, and then wouldn't be able to wait until Christmas to give it to you. Then he'd go out and get you something else to put under the tree!

I'd always give him a hard time over it, and he'd just laugh it off!

After several years, I finally talked him into letting me hold onto your gift until right before Christmas.

I locked it in the back of my desk drawer. My desk drawers lock as long as the middle one is pushed in all the way. Of course, he knew that. The stinker snuck into my office and got it out early anyway!

I gave up after that.

*I miss him already.
Love and prayers to you all.*
