“ Cindy and all the Cobb family, It is with deepest sympathy and a heavy heart of hearing the passing of Steve. As a fellow Western Warrior ('71) and a pass co-worker at Farm Credit, I have had a double pleasure of knowing and working with Steve. We have shared many good memories growing up and working daily serving people in Alamance County. Steve was raised from a good background and carried his good morals and views into his adult life. He loved his friends, family, life and most of all His Lord. He now is receiving his rewards on being a faithful servant. May you all find peace and comfort along with an understanding during this time. We have a Hope given to us that we will see our loved ones once again. Please keep that in your hearts.

“ Hello, Cobb family. I went through high school with Steve at Western and graduated with him in 71. Have not seen him in many years but certainly remember him from high school. Was always one of the good guys and good to be around. Sorry for your loss. Remember it is only a temporary separation, thank goodness we have that hope.

“ Heartfelt condolences go out to you Cindy, Teresa, Kenneth, and to you Roy. It's hard to put into words the void that is created when someone from your youth is taken from us at such a young time in their lives, but I will always cherish the times and memories of those times spent with Steve as we were growing up in the Western/Lakeview area. Lifting up many prayers to you all and God Bless you. Warriors forever, Frank E. Bryant WAHS Class of 1971

“ The world has truly lost a person that brought joy into the life of others. About 15 years ago I was new to Farm Credit and the only minority at one of our annual events. Steve upon seeing me, he immediately came over, introduced himself, told me a joke and made me feel as if I was talking to an old friend. Starting that day, we shared a friendship that I treasure. The news that Steve has been called Home fills my heart with sadness, but I know that upon his arrival at the Pearly Gates, St. Peter is happy that he now has a new friend.

“ Cindy, We are sad to hear of Steve's passing. May many warm memories surround and comfort you, Lee, and family during this difficult time of grieving. Steve was such a kind man and most people that met him always made a friend pretty quickly. He will be truly missed. We are remembering you in our thoughts and prayers.
