“ Oh Steve...I met you in the hall at our offices back in 2012. This is heartbreaking. It won't be the same going to the offices knowing I won't ever run into you at the elevator. You were a wonderful person And will truly be missed. I'm glad I got to give you a hug before your left for Durham. I wish there had been a miracle.... but that wasn't in the plans. May you rest in peace.

“ I remember hustling Steven in my backyard with my man made pitch and putt golf course
But he hustled me whenever I needed work done to my car. I even drove upstate to see him a couple of times.
Boy did we have a lot of laughs
I will always remember his infectious smile and laughter. He was always happy.
My thoughts and prayers goes out John and his family. Rest in peace big guy 🙏

“ My first encounter with Steven was as a result of his former wife, Teresa, referring me to him while buying my home... he was loud, a little pushy, and rushed, but he had his trusted dog with him and he softened when he looked in that direction. From that day forward, whenever I saw him at gatherings he was the loud life of the party who had an infectious laugh and an ability to put people at ease. He was a likable unlikable guy, and I will remember him fondly. May he rest in peace.

“ Steve will always be remembered to us most for his big heart and hearty laugh. He often welcomed us into his home and always made us feel like family. I'll never forget the numerous gatherings, especially our misfit Thanksgiving dinners. I'm most grateful for the amazing friend he was to my beloved mother. I'm certain they're having a good time together in heaven.

“ I am so sad and sorry to see this. I was one of the nurses who cared for Steve during his chemo infusions at Huntersville. He was a super guy, always full of positivity! He treated us well and brought in our favorite italian cookies from Cyntucci Bakery! He will be sorely missed! Deepest condolences to family and to his two sisters I met - one being from NY!
