“ My thoughts and heartfelt prayers are with the family. I went to high school with Susan and I knew her as a beautiful and sweet girl. The Lord gives us Mercy and Grace and lovingly looks upon our heart. She is in the wonderful comfort of His arms now.

“ I am so sorry to hear of Susan's death. I knew her through the Davis family (next door neighbors). My heart goes out to her children. Suicide is hard on those left behind. My father committed suicide so I know the pain. Lean on each other and God for strength and peace. RIP Susan

Linda E. Taylor's father did NOT commit suicide. His wife (and Linda's mother) Thelma Elliott murdered him with a shotgun. Linda has always known this.

“ Chelsea, Matthew, and Colin -- my heart goes out to all of you as I remember the days of your mom and I chatting in the driveway and you all playing in one yard or the other or back and forth. I still display a photo of the Davis kids and the Faulconer kids knit together on our front porch. I believe the photo was taken on the day of our move away. You are arranged from youngest to oldest with families intermingled, and I know your mom and I were looking on, proud of our kiddos and wishing that circumstances did not mean that we would not be part of each others' daily lives any more. Over the years, we moved many times, but your mom and I had reconnected several years ago and had been talking and messaging in recent months. I am so sorry for your loss. I will miss your mom and the reconnection we were making. I mourn for the innocent days of our watching you playing together, and I mourn for what might have been if we had been able to enjoy reminiscing in the years to come. You are in my prayers.
