“ We want to express our deepest sympathy to the family and friends of Tara, we only got to meet Tara a few times. She came to our home on Christmas Day with our granddaughter (Becca Reid). We treated her as our own, such a Beautiful young lady we played games and ate together. She was so surprised how we gave out gift cards for the winners of the games that we played she even won some. I don't know why she was here at our home she felt comfortable enough to call us Grammy & Pop. Before they left they fixed to go plates, I only got to see her a few times after that. We are so saddened at the loss of such a bright young lady gone way too soon..Our prayers are that God will comfort the family and friends and give his peace that surpasses all understanding...
