“ Missy, it's Debby Plumlee. Leesa saw the obituary and sent it to me. I am so sorry for your loss! I can't imagine what you are going through. Please know that my thoughts and prayers are with you and your family during this awful time. We have special memories of times spent with you parents and family years ago. I'm still in your grandparent's house. If you're ever down this way, feel free to stop by. Know that our love goes out to you now. God bless you, Debby

“ I will forever hold Taylor in my heart and though the tears we shed are many, we do not grieve as those who have no hope. The privilege to baptize Taylor and Nick will not only be cherished, but I pray, will give us the confidence and one day comfort, understanding baptism is a picture of what God has done. It was Taylor's moment to tell the world he had put his faith in Jesus Christ. May this moment drown out any and all fears and questions that trouble our hearts.

My deepest love and sympathies for my cherished Hardiman family.
