“ Teresa had a wonderful heart and a gentile soul. She called me and left me a very touching voice mail on July 8th. I tried to call her one last time but she was resting. When I called again she had gone with God. Teresa please know that I am sorry your gone. May you be happy and at peace with God and all your ancestors who have been waiting for you. I will keep your voice mail and always remember the nice things you said to me. God bless you. Thank you for crossing paths with me. Richard

“ Teresa left a voice message for me Saturday night. I'm so sorry I wasn't able to connect with her. Your family is in my heart and my prayers. I will remember her as my enthusiastic and friendly roommate in Chicago years ago. I am glad that she spent many years in NC with her family. She is safe in the arms of the Lord now, the best place she can be.

“ Your family is in my prayers. Teresa always carried a smile for everyone, such a sweet soul. So many memories from small children playing basketball with her dad as our coach, to playing in the state playoffs at Osborne. I am so sorry for your loss.
