“ I will remember Teresa for the big caring heart she had. when my son Scotty died Teresa knew exactly what I was feeling and going thru and she reached out to me so much and helped me so much during that time in my life for she had gone thru losing a son herself. she was in fact going to go with me to a place she went to after losing her son heath but then she got sick n was in and out hospital and sick so much we never got to talk more about things cause then our conversations changed to praying for her and she always told me she love me and she was praying for me and that anytime I needed someone talk to she was there for me and now God has called her home. so I will remember her for the caring loving person she was who had a big beautiful smile. Rest in Peace now sweetly your pain and suffering is no more now your in the arms of Jesus and with your precious Heath again. we sure are going miss you here.
