“ I can't believe she is gone. We had several years together and it doesn't seem real. She had the biggest heart and always cared deeply for people. I could tell she was happy in her life the times we spoke, and I was happy for her. She loved life to the fullest. She went way to soon. She will be greatly missed. We send prayers and deepest sympathy to the entire family. My God Bless her and the family.

“ I've known Theescha since freshman year in high school. She became my best friend these last 10 years. She was another mom to my daughter. I'll miss being able to talk to her, have her talk me out of funds I get into, and going to see New Kids on the Block. My heart goes out to Chance, Morgan, Katrina, Chris, Deborah, Aaron, and Carson.

“ I met Theescha when she worked at Creative Touch Hair Salon. She would take my granddaughter to church and to her mom's house to play with the animals. Kimiya loved herself some Theescha. Heaven has gained a true angel. Rest on my friend!
