“ I have fond memories of my Uncle Carroll. I spent the summer or 1954 living with my uncle and family in Andrews, NC. We were having fun, whether we were eating green apples up in the orchard, or hunting for salamanders in the creek to trade for a coke and a moon pie at Toby's store. I am thankful for the memories of that summer. I can still see that big smile. Love and miss you Carroll. Maurice Dockery and family.
