I'm brokenhearted to hear the news of your passing dear Terrie I remember the Mahjong games and your kitchen and the lots and fun we had with newcomers you will always be missed. I remember being in the swimming pool with you for hours and hours in your complex, you were an unbelievable swimmer. You just couldn't get out of the pool. I love you, Terrie and you're in heaven with your dear necklace. It was my honor to call you, my friend. May you rest in peace
