

Thermond Edward Thompson

July 28, 1960 - October 31, 2015

On the 31st of October, 2015, Thermond E. Thompson, 55, listened and departed this mortal coil to be with our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ in everlasting paradise. He was a loving father, brother and husband. He will be greatly missed by his daughter, Courtney L. Thompson; son, Laban R.M. Thompson; son-in-law, R. Jason Looney; sister, Karen T. Rustmann and brother-in-law, Walter Rustmann. He was preceded in death by the love of his life, Angie Thompson. He was an active member in his church for many years, spreading joy and God's word to many children with his infamous children's sermons. He was a great member of his community, coaching little league football, wrestling, baseball and softball. He proudly served his country as a Navy Veteran. Thermond was truly a servant of God's will helping those in need in any way that he could without recognition. Services for Thermond will be held on Wednesday, November 4 at 12:00 Noon at First Presbyterian Church of Mooresville with The Very Reverend Peet Dickson of the Cathedral of St. Luke and St. Paul and Rev. David Rockness officiating. Visitation will follow the service in the church parlor. A private burial will be held at a later date in Charleston, SC. His family is requesting prayers and in lieu of flowers, donations may be sent to Guardian ad Litem, 2325 Concord Lake Rd., Concord, NC 28025, The Dove House, 2407 Simonton Rd., Statesville, NC 28625 and/or The Wounded Warrior Project, 4899 Belfort Rd., Suite 300, Jacksonville, FL 32256.

Cavin-Cook Funeral Home and Crematory is serving the Thompson family.

Condolences may be made to the family at www.cavin-cook.com.
